DETAILED ACTION

Specification

A brief abstract of the technical disclosure in the specification must commence on a separate sheet, preferably following the claims, under the heading "Abstract" or "Abstract of the Disclosure." The sheet or sheets presenting the abstract may not include other parts of the application or other material. The abstract in an application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111 may not exceed 150 words in length. The purpose of the abstract is to enable the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the public generally to determine quickly from a cursory inspection the nature and gist of the technical disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5-9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Young et al (US 5,809,204).

For claim 1, Young et al teach method for time-shifting a presentation of multimedia content using a recorder (e.g. column 13, lines 18-30) comprising:

receiving a first stream of multimedia content on a first channel (e.g. column 13, lines 18-30 and column 7, lines 1-11 and figure 1, user can use the system of Young et al to schedule record tow program from different channel, for example user can schedule record "All My Children" in channel 13 beginning at 11:00AM ,and then record "All my Child" in channel 7, beginning at 12:00Pm); storing the first stream of multimedia content to a data store associated with the recorder; receiving a channel change request (e.g. column 13, lines 18-30 and column 7, lines 1-11 and figure 1, user can use the system of Young et al to schedule record tow program from different channel, for example user can schedule record "All My Children" in channel 13 beginning at 11:00AM ,and then record "All my Child" in channel 7, beginning at 12:00Pm, Channel number has to change when going from channel 13 to channel 7);

receiving a second stream of multimedia content on a second channel correlating to the channel change request (e.g. column 13, lines 18-30 and column7, lines 1-11 and figure 1, user can use the system of Young et al to schedule record tow program from different channel, for example user can schedule record "All My Children" in channel 13 beginning at 11:00AM, and then record "All my Child" in channel 7, beginning at 12:00Pm); storing the second stream of multimedia content to the data store while retaining the first stream of multimedia content in the data store (e.g. column 13, lines 18-30 and column7, lines 1-11 and figure 1, user can use the system of Young et al to schedule record tow program from different channel, for example user can schedule record "All My Children" in channel 13 beginning at 11:00AM ,and then record "All my Child" in channel 7, beginning at 12:00Pm. The recorder of Young et al is a tape record as shown in figures 22A-B, Therefore, These two program have to be retained in the tape); receiving a rewind trick mode request (e.g. column 10, lines 3-13 and figure 13, "Reversing"); presenting the second stream of multimedia content in reverse (e.g. column 10, lines 3-13 and figure 13, "Reversing"); and presenting the first stream of multimedia content in reverse after reaching a beginning of the second stream of multimedia content (e.g. column 10, lines 3-13 and figure 13, "Reversing", Since "All my Children" in channel 13 is recorded at 11:00AM and "All my Child" in channel 7" is recorded at 12:00 Pm on the tape, user can "reversing" playback the tape beginning from the later recorded program);.

Claim 6 is rejected for the same reasons as discussed in claim 1 above.

For claims 2 and 7, Young et al teach assigning at least one identifier to each of the first and second streams of multimedia content to identify a sequence in which the first and second streams of multimedia content are recorded (e.g. column 8, lines 15-50, tape indexing that automatically finds the starts of each recording).

For claims 3 and 8, Young et al teach assigning at least one identifier to each of the first and second streams of multimedia content to identify a channel from which the first and second streams of multimedia content are recorded (e.g. figure 1 shows the channel number 7 for "All my Child" and channel 13 for "Al my Children").

For claims 5 and 11, Young et al teach receiving a play request; presenting the first stream of multimedia content; and presenting the second stream of multimedia content after reaching an end of the first stream of multimedia content (user can playback the Tape after the tape is rewind back to the first recorded program, figure 21).

For claim 9, Young et al teach a user input device through which a user can choose a user selectable function to perform a desired recorder operation (e.g. figure 21).
